Bloodlust, volume two in Stefan's Diaries, explores the (mis)adventures of Stefan and Damon during their early vampire existence in New Orleans (though in the show they don't immediately leave Mystic Falls after the vampire eradication as they do here). At this point, their roles are reversed, with Stefan embracing the traditional vampire lifestyle and Damon shunning his new nature, choosing capture and torture over self-preservation.

When Stefan pulled the stake out of his father's stomach, his bloodlust became too much for him to suppress and he tasted his father's blood, completing his transition into a full vampire. Stefan then went to meet Damon, who had also planned to let himself die.

Stefan Salvatore | The Vampire Diaries Wiki | Fandom

Having read all 6 in the series I can safely say that Bloodlust is the best. So much happens when the Salvatore brothers become young vampires. We are presented with Stefan's never ending blood-thirst which ultimately leads to some surprises in New Orleans, and Damon's stubbornness to listen to Stefan and accepting his new skin.
