In this sweet supernatural romance, Balog resurrects a childhood fantasy: the sandman, who puts us to sleep at night. The sandmen (and women) here are human souls who have died but can return to life after a century of ghostly service. In this case, Eron, who died in 1910, looks forward to meeting in real life Julia, the girl he's watched over all her life and has grown to love. Eron has a ...
