The British weren't the Nazis, and one wonders whether the approach of Gandhi or King would have been far more effective (as well as more justifiable morally). Even Broderick has serious ambivalence and reluctance when it comes to the IRA's approach -- a sentiment that gives this memoir a great deal of power.

A memoir is a historical account or biography written from personal knowledge or special sources. It's a book about your life, the lessons learned, and key moments that shaped who you are. We all typically think of a memoir and cringe a little at the idea of a book about someone else's life. But that's not all a memoir is!
