On 6 August 1848, Captain McQuhae of Daedalus and several of his officers and crew saw a sea serpent which was subsequently reported in The Times. The vessel sighted what they named as an enormous serpent between the Cape of Good Hope and St Helena. The serpent was witnessed to have been swimming with four feet of its head above the water and they believed that there was another sixty feet of the creature in the sea. Captain McQuahoe also said that " passed rapidly, but so close under our lee qu
